From the Diocese of Lansing

Dear Friends:

On the weekend of November 21 we are being asked to make a contribution to the Campaign for Human Development, the Catholic Church's effort to help the poor to help themselves.

The campaign was started by the bishops in 1971 as an effort to help the poor and also to make us more aware of their needs.

Those of us who recall the sacrifices of our parents during times of economic depression to feed us, and, in general, provide for us a chance to have a full life are well aware of the burdens of poverty.

Because we know, I hope that you will help the bishops of the United States to help those who are now suffering.

Of the monies received, 15% remains in our diocese and in the past has been used to start "self-help" projects in Genesee, Ingham, Washtenaw, Jackson and Lenawee counties.

In behalf of all of those who will benefit from your concern, let me thank you in the name of Christ.

Sincerely,
Kenneth J. Povish
Bishop of Lansing

The Campaign for Human Development Collection will be taken up next (Saturday and) Sunday. Envelopes are available today. Please consider a gift of one day's income as your contribution this year to a cause that has brought new hope and a new life to so many of our nation's poor, oppressed. A gift of one day's income so another can have a new life ... We shared much in the past several difficult years. It was a beautiful response to the call of Christ that wounds be bound and fetters broken... And would it not be His will that the newfound enthusiasm of 1976 see us grow in your concern, in our compassion, in our search for justice, in our sharing. As hearts were not hard in times that were, may our hope for the future be one we share with all His people.

Just a Word...

by Fr. Harvey

Nearly 200 people were in attendance last Tuesday evening for the Will seminar, moderated by Mr. Frank Koval from our Diocesan Office of Development. Fine presentations were made by the participating panelists, Mr. Michael Schrorer, Mr. Paul Stein and Judge Rodney Hutchinson. Besides stressing the importance of making a will and how to get it done, the speakers emphasized the importance of allowing one's character and personality to show forth in a person's last testament. The opportunities for continued charity to one's church where faith matured throughout life or to people who have been important to me in my lifetime might well be remembered when making plans to distribute the material goods we have gained and accumulated during a lifetime in this world.

As a parish community, we have been blessed by such remembrances in the past. The recently renovated parish hall, you will recall, was given a great impetus at the beginning stage through a bequest made to this parish by the late Al Walters. The new heating system for the church and the organ renovation has been made possible through the Estate of Mr. Harold Block. Several other parishioners have set up Memorial Bequests at the time of a family member's death in lieu of flowers and Mass cards memorials.

Fittingly, the Parish Council some years ago passed a resolution stating that such bequests could never be used for general operation but rather become part of a Heritage Fund to be used in some significant and lasting way for the benefit of this parish community. That resolution still stands. Our gratefulness to our many benefactors continues to make us thankful.

Both Fr. Burns and myself are scheduled to take part in the Diocesan priest's retreat during the coming week. From Monday evening until Thursday afternoon, we will be at the DeWitt Retreat House. Fr. Julius Meyer will assist in some of the parish activities that are scheduled in our absence. The other Team members and rectory staff will be on the job as usual. All the parishioners of our community will be remembered during these days of special prayer.

Liturgically Speaking...

by Fr. Burns

I once overheard someone say that their new parish church resembled a bowling alley. Now we don't mean to find fault with bowling alleys, but people pray better in churches, right? So it seems that the design of a church building with proper interior furnishings can create an atmosphere conducive to good worship. The church is not just a building where large numbers of people congregate on Sundays. This

There will be a Children's Thanksgiving Liturgy, Wednesday, November 24 at 7:30 p.m.

A reading from Genesis is to be acted out and all children are encouraged to participate in this skit. A meeting for the children interested will be from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 16 in the Religious Education Center. Parents may pick the children up at 5:00. During this time the children will work on props to be used in acting out the story from Genesis.

There will be a second meeting in the Religious Education Center on Tuesday, November 23 at 4:00 p.m. At this time the children will rehearse for the Wednesday night liturgy.

Another date for your calendars is Tuesday, November 16 at 8:30 p.m. At this time we will be gathering at the home of Judy Buck, 208 Fairhills, Ypsilanti, to begin the planning of, what else, the Children's Christmas Liturgy. Yes, folks, Christmas is around the corner. We welcome anyone who would enjoy working with the children on this very special liturgy.

Also note: The fifth meeting of the First Communicants and their parents will be Monday evening, November 15 at 7:00.

These are the children and teacher from the Special Education class. As you can see, we are a very happy group.

We are using a program called "Gift" by Carol Podlusck, CSS. This is a two year Special Education Program for persons ages 6 - 18. Each lesson has its own specific theme which relates to the message of the entire unit. The lessons and units build upon one anoth4r and upon the student's life experiences. Each class session is divided into several sections: activity, prayer-readiness, presentation, singing, Scripture reading and a closing personal message. The children take something home each week to help them remember the lesson.

Jan and I enjoy working with the children. Each week we all look forward to our class. If you know of a special child that is not in our class, would you please let us know - we would love to have them.

A. R. Ed. News

The Area Religious Education Program now in its fourth year is happy to report an increase in overall enrollment of 10%. This program which serves the public high school students of our area is a threefold program which includes learning about the Faith, experiencing Christian Community and opportunities to be of Service to one's parish and the world at large.

Any High School student (grades 9-12) is invited to register. It's never too late. With football season ending and time on your hands, why not come and join us.

Weekend retreats, skiing and other activities, as well as lots of things to still talk about, lie ahead.

Our junior and senior students recently mailed out information to assist the Christian voter in making decisions. Some of our Ypsilanti ninth graders helped in furthering the work of the St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. John's. A few of our students walked for hunger in the world with the CROP walk in Ann Arbor. All are to be congratulated for trying to make their Faith more alive and giving witness to it in a doubting world.

Call 761-7656 for more information.

is the place - 'the House of the Lord' - where the assembly sings praise to the Father as members of the body of Christ.

"When churches are to be built." the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy says, "let great care be taken that they be suitable for the celebration of liturgical services and for the active participation of the faithful." (Art. 124) Consequently, when our parish church was renovated in keeping with updated liturgical norms, the changes in the sanctuary and especially around the altar were made with you, the active participant, in mind. The interior design of our church has been a real factor in promoting your renewed interest in the Mass.

But most importantly, a good climate for prayer exists when you are touched by the sights and sounds around you. Candles, flowers, music, incense - all are expressions of belief in a tangible way leading to worship. Church then is more than a place; it becomes an experience in God's love for his People. As you reflect on the meaning of church today, see this house of the Lord for what it is, and "lift up your hearts."

My King and my God,
For to Thee do I pray."

For all catechists

For the children and parents of First Communicants of St. John's

From the Desk of the Executive Director: Richard O. Pancost

Dear Friend,

On Friday night, November 19, the CBS Movie of the Week (9 p.m. nationwide) will be "I Want To Keep My Baby," a dramatization of teenage unmarried motherhood and adoption drawn in large part from Children's Home Society of California's two educational films, "I'm 17, I'm Pregnant ... and I Don't Know What To Do" and "Growing Up Together: Four Teen Mothers and Their Babies."

I believe you and your family will be interested in seeing and discussing "I Want To Keep My Baby."

Clean Sweep

A soap manufacturer said to a priest as the two walked together, "The gospel you preach hasn't done much good, for there's still a lot of wickedness and wicked people."

Later, as they passed an exceedingly dirty child making mud pies, the priest remarked, "I see that soap has not done much good in the world, for there is still much dirt and dirty people."

"Oh well," said the soapmaker, "soap is useful only when it's applied."

The priest replied, "Exactly."

Vocations Bulletin

A meeting for any young men interested in studying for the priesthood for the Diocese of Lansing is planned for Sunday evening, November 21st at 7:00 p.m. in St. Mary Cathedral Rectory, Lansing. Information will be presented on various seminary programs, admissions and acceptance procedures, financial assistance opportunities, etc.

Persons interested in information on seminary programs, but unable to attend the November 21st meeting in Lansing may receive similar information by mail by simply contacting Father Jim Swiat at the Office of Vocations or St. Mary Cathedral.

Office of Vocations, 300 W. Ottawa, Lansing, MI 48933, (517) 372-8540.

St. Mary Cathedral, 219 Seymour, Lansing, MI 48933, (517) 484-5331.

Coffee and Donuts Request

On Sunday mornings after the 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. Masses, Coffee and Donuts are being served as usual. What is not usual this year is that the floor is carpeted and we would like to keep it in good shape for many years. We would ask that you keep your children seated while they are eating. Many donut crumbs are ground into the carpeting and a lot of spilling is taking place. Perhaps by being sure the children are seated while eating and drinking, this problem can be easily taken care of. We ask that you keep this in mind on Sunday mornings.

Day Care Homes

The Washtenaw County Dept. of Social Services is in need of licensed day care homes. We are asking your help in publicizing this need through your church bulletin and/or newsletter. Michigan law requires persons caring for unrelated children in their home to be licensed. Our agency provides this service at no charge. We also offer a referral service whereby persons in the community wishing to place their child(ren) in day care may obtain the names of licensed providers.

Anyone interested in becoming licensed or wanting to make use of the referral service should telephone 994-2947 (Ms. Krause or Mrs. Settergren).

On the Book Rack

Our Sunday Visitor's November 21st issue focuses on Food - a simple matter of survival for 6 out of every 10 people alive today, highlighting the plight of people actually starving here in America. It will also reveal ways modern nutrition can help us stretch the value of every ounce of food.

Catholic Digest's November issue features: The Diabetes Epidemic - once thought to be controlled with insulin is again rising sharply in America. St. Therese of Lisieux - extensive excerpts from Christopher O'Mahony's book; Four Young Catholics: Why We Came Back; Are You an Extrovert or an Introvert?; Sister Mary Mummy Coaches Football; How Children Learn to Love; When a Pastor Retires.

New Catholic World's November/December issue features Scripture and the Church today. Eight Scripture authorities such as Richard Rohr, O.F.M., Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza and Eugene LaVerdiere, S.S.S. treat, in popular language, topics such as Christian identity, discipleship, prayer and spirituality as found in the Gospels. They discuss the religious roles of women and Church community in the New Testament.

Incredible But True

In most states a teenage girl who wants to have her ears pierced must have the written approval of her parents before this minor procedure can be performed; however, she does not need parental consent to have an abortion. Support the Human Life Amendment to the U.S. Constitution which will bring an end to the estimated more than one million unborn babies destroyed annually in the United States, as a result of the Supreme Court's decision permitting abortion-on-demand.
